

THE WORD IS OUT.

Comcast @Home is here, and it downloads 50 times faster than a 56k phone modem.*

Comcast @Home downloads 50 times faster than the fastest phone modem,* so you can experience streaming video, audio, and graphic-heavy pages in seconds. Because the service travels through your cable line, there's never a need to dial in – your computer will always be online. And Comcast @Home is inexpensive. It costs what you may already pay for standard dial-up service on a second phone line.
